Would Men be just, on Terms we need not stand,
But live in Love and Peace throughout the Land,
Now Law with Tricks of Knives is so beset,
The Suit proves worse then looking of the Debt.
Hang't, hang't refer the Cause, and cease your Fury,
Two friends will do as well as Judge and Jury.

Cappeper 1696.

Of the four Quarters of the Year, and first of the Spring Quarter.

Which this Year [according to the Tables of Mr. V. Wing, in his Astronomia Britannica] Commences March the 9. 23h. 37'. P. M. at which time we have about 26 degrees of Libra Culminating, and about 32 degrees of Sagittary Ascending, the Moon Defluxes from the Trine of the Two Superiors Saturn and Jupiter (who are also in Trine Aspect) and from the Trine of Venus, and hastens to the Trine of the Sun; These are arguments of Peace and Tranquility amongst us, or at least great Indeavours to compleat the same.

The Heavens seem very propitious and import nothing of violence, and I pray God we may find it so.

The last Revolution produced much variety of Affairs in our Three Nations, as also a suddain change of Government, the Astral Cause thereof was not, nor could not be deduced from a Scheme of the Suns emergence into Libra only, but from many other Considerations, Positions, and Configurations of the Heavenly Bodies, of which here is no room to discourse. But in our last you may Read these words "We may expect to see many remarkable actions upon the Stage of the World this Revolution, but I presume we in England may notwithstanding all fears, be yet happily preserv'd from any sweeping Sickness to hurry us into the other World, or any violent or dangerous occurrences either upon our Persons or Estates, for the Scheme promises much calmness in General, and those that resolve to break their Bonds, and make excursions beyond the Sphere of their Activity, let them expect the merits of their deserts. The last may be said upon this Figure of the Suns Ingress for the Year 1696. Some there are that will decry even truth it self, and endeavour to make it appear false, that they and their Actions (which cannot endure the day) may appear innocent, we have had large experience within these few Years of the Treacherous dealings used amongst breaking of all Degrees and Qualities, and I need say no more but this truth, that a true Diamond is to be esteemed above heaps of Bragg Stones.

We have divers Rules and Examples left to us as Presidents by the Ancients how to Judge of general Accidents, or mundane affairs, and thereby Inform the World what may probably Occur to Mankind according to Natural and Secondary causes. I do not much depend upon the Sign Ascending, but upon the position and Configurations of the Planets: by some Tables this Ingress will be almost 3 hours after this time before mentioned, and then we shall have the first Decade of the Sign Aquary Ascending and that may be the most exact Figure for ought I know, and 'tis the Judgment of our best Astronomers now Living: if so, then Saturn in Scorpio, [in Opposition to the reputed Horoscope of Ireland (our neighbour Nation) now in much Tribulation] must also be the significator, and represent the Subjects of England in particular. Now the Sign Scorpio is reputed a very treacherous Sign, and a Planet or Planets therein, Influence much fraud and base dealing between Man and Man, and in generall amongst the Sons of Men, of which I fear we may be too sensible during his continuance in that Sign, but this is in a great measure mitigated by the benevolent Trine of Jove who is in Pisces, there in Conjunction with Mercury and Venus, and something of their gentle Influence may also be expected. Hence it promises well to the Learned Clergy and Lawyers in generall (altho they must not expect to be exempted wholly from reflections and censure) The industrious Merchant also is promised a considerable share of success, and probably more then he expects, nor doth the position in generall nor any other Matters or things necessary to be considered in this kind of judgement, seem to threaten so grand Catastrophe's as many are too apt to fear: And 'tis very probable that strong Indea-vours will be used for the composition and settlement of these Grand differences we labour under, without much effusion of Blood on either Side, from which

Good Lord deliver us.

We are yet under the grand effects of the last Conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter in Leo, which was a Triple Conjunction, and so the more remarkable in that Kingly Sign Leo, the Ascendant of Rome, and in square to Taurus the Horoscope of Ireland. Here had I room I could expatiate, and let the Reader know at Large what may be yet expected from this Conjunction and other remarkable Configurations of the Planets, which I doubt not but will be taken Notice of this Year by such as have more room to breath forth their Astral Predictions. For they do usually and very frequently point out many calamities to Mankind throughout the whole World, as has been curiously observed.

Sometimes by their Influence (and the permission of the Great Creator of Heaven and Earth) they stir up strange heats in Mankind, and prompts them upon slender occasion to destroy each other, and sometimes by violent diseases, sometimes by Plague or Famine, Fire, Inundation, Earthquakes, &c. all which the best of Mortals are subject to: for there is nothing certain in this World but uncertainty.

Culpepper 1690

rainy, and thus I conclude my Judgement upon this Quarter, and indeed upon the whole Year, in the words of an Ingenious Poet.

*All things like them have time to rise and Rot,
And from each others Ruine are begot;*

*For life is not confin'd to him or thee,
It is given to all for use, to none for property;*

*Consider former Ages Past and Gone,
Whose Circles ended long e're thine begun;*

Then tell me friend what part in them thou hast!

Thus may'st thou Judge the future by the past.

*There's nothing stable, various Scenes obtrude,
And all the World's but a Vicissitude.*

And He changeth the times and the seasons,
He removeth Kings, and setteth up Kings, He giveth wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding, Daniel 2. v. 21.

Of the Summer.

Which this Year begins June the 1th at 3h. 2'. in the Morning, tis ushered in with a Benevolent Tine of Jove and Mars from Regal Signs, and we hope may produce healing Tranquil Actions amongst the generality of Mor-rals. This Quarter is naturally hot and dry, and not so fit for digestion of meats as the Winter Season, and therefore a sparing diet is commendable: Now the pores of the Body are open, (or at least more open then in the Winter season,) therefore take care of sudden Colds, or drinking cold liquor when you are hot: Now the Cholerick Humour abounds most, and more then in any season. Heat is now at the highest pitch, the Winds lowest, Sea calmest, the Fruits of the Earth are brought to perfect maturity and ripeness, and all kind of Cattle to fatness. Now Merchants and Mariners do undertake voyages to bring home Forreign Commodities. Now I advise you to beware of surfeits, and use cooling herbs often, and if you are willing to continue your health and strength, drink Wines and Strong Waters very sparingly. Yet I say sometimes a Glas of good Wine cheers the Heart and revives the spirits, according to the Old Adage, Vinum laetificat cor hominis.

Of Autumn.

Which commences this Year September the 12th, near 6 at Night, and is attended with an Opposition of the Sun and Jupiter and something of the Opposition of Jove and Mars from Aequinoctial Signs, and this I fear may prove an angry Season in earnest, or at least produce great differences, debates, and disputations amongst Great Persons, of which I shall not take upon me to pass my modest and innocent conjecture in this place: But let you know

The Greatest Monarchs with their Mighty State, Who Rul'd the World, were Over-rul'd by Fate.

Many are the Diseases that attend Mortals this Quarter, to prevent which eat meats moderately warm, and use drinks also so qualified and remember this honest plain advice

If thou dost any sharp Disease endure, Use all thy wits to get a present cure.

Of Winter.

Which commences this Year December the 11th, about 7 in the Morning, and is ushered in with a Square of the Sun and Jupiter, &c. Whence we may conclude Matters are still under debate, and the generality of People remain as much dissatisfied as ever, — And we know

*Heav'n has to all allotted soon or late,
Some Lucky Revolutions to their Fate.*

The Natural temperature of this Quarter is well known to be cold and moist, 'tis indeed an uncomfortable Season, and too frequently dangerous to Travellers both by Sea and Land, and more troublesome to old persons than to young, in regard the lively heat of youthfull blood doth mitigate the superfluous malignancy of cold moist Humours, in the younger sort, whereas the coldness of Age is Aggravated thereby.

The

Culpepper 1690.

The Diseases of this Quarter and the rest I need not mention, they have been largely Enumerated already in my former Books, to which I refer the Reader, and only advise that this Quarter be used ~~meats~~ hot and dry commixed with hot Spices, as also Wine or Strong Drink now being taken moderately, do much fortifie the Spirits, and support the Body from danger of Cold and the ill consequences thereof, to conclude this Quarter I say

"Use frequent Exercise with sparing Diet

"Take Physick seldom, study to be Quiet.
